Homicide at 26th & Calvert Streets

Updated Information

As many of you know by now, a homicide occurred on Friday, March 12, 2010 at 26th and Calvert Streets. According to our source, the victim was not a resident of Charles Village. However the victim did frequent the Harwood area and has long been the subject of police investigations. According to our source (and also reported in The Baltimore Sun and media), the victim was the leader of “Young Guerilla Family (YGF)” gang which is concentrated in the Barclay area of Charles Village. At this time, no information about the suspect is being provided. Further information will be forthcoming.

If you or anyone you know has any information in reference to this incident please contact me (Walter Brown) at the CVCBD Community Safety Office so that I may forward it to the BPD Homicide Section. Your identity will of course remain ANONYMOUS.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require additional information. The link to the Baltimore Sun article on this incident is below.
